

You won't see yourself on amphetamines,
but everyone else will.

It's scary how fast you can blow a 20 grand inheritance and wake up one morning like this. But when you've exhausted all other options you take what you can get.

Sophie's parents had given her the inheritance money just 6 months ago. How had she spent it so quickly? How had an occasional line at festivals turned into daily amphetamine use?

You'd never think amphetamines could turn a small fortune into a big problem, but they can. In 2010, there were more than 2,500 amphetamine-related treatment sessions in WA.

Read more about Sophie's story
drugaware.com.au

